OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY VICE CHANCELLOR
(ACADEMIC AFFAIRS)

Date: Friday, 6th November, 2026.

TO: All 34th Graduands

Congratulations & Warm greetings,

RE: GUIDELINES FOR THE 34TH GRADUATION CEREMONY

All prospective graduands are required to observe the following guidelines during the forthcoming 34th Graduation Ceremony scheduled for Saturday, 21st November 2026 at KIU Western Campus, Ishaka-Bushenyi.

1. Adhere to the scheduled reporting time and arrive early to allow for registration, verification and orderly procession.
2. Avoid bringing infants/children into the central graduation arena, especially during the order of proceedings, oath taking and presentation of graduands by Schools/Colleges.
3. Cooperate with University security personnel and comply with all security checks and access procedures.
4. Possession or consumption of alcohol, illegal drugs and other harmful substances is highly prohibited.
5. Respect University officials, invited dignitaries, staff, and fellow graduands.
6. Dress smartly and wear the University graduation gown appropriately.
7. Maintain discipline and decorum throughout the ceremony. Avoid unnecessary movements, noise and other disruptive behaviour.
8. Follow instructions from University officials, marshals and other authorised personnel.
9. Observe strict order during the academic procession and presentation by your respective School/College.
10. Protect University property and avoid any form of vandalism or damage to facilities.
11. Take photographs and videos responsibly without disrupting the proceedings.
12. Safeguard your personal belongings and avoid bringing unnecessary valuables.
13. Any misconduct or failure to comply with these guidelines may result in removal from the graduation arena and appropriate disciplinary action.

All graduands are expected to conduct themselves responsibly and uphold the dignity and reputation of Kampala International University.
